Get Out Your Wool Swim Suit For a Free Dip

Sierra Madreans may get a free swim after all, barring ice on the magnolia trees.

The City Council Tuesday night tentatively set the afternoon of Sunday, Oct. 20, as the date for a free open house at the new pool. If it isn't raining—or snowing—at that time, bring your bathing suit. It probably will be the only free dip you'll get.

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington said that all major work is done on the pool. Only landscaping and a general cleanup remains.

Fun for All At Ascension Bazaar

Plans have been completed for an elaborate and entertaining bazaar Saturday, Oct. 19, at the Church of the Ascension, Mrs. Woodrow Mecca and Mrs. Dean Scurr, committee co-chairmen, announced yesterday.

The affair will be in the church playground between 12 noon and 9 p.m.

Highlights of the bazaar include drawings for valuable prizes donated by Sierra Madre businessmen, and the sale of new and slightly used clothing and bric-a-brac at bargain prices in "Fashion Alley."

DRAWINGS for prizes will take place at regular intervals during the day and evening. Tickets are now available at participating merchants' stores, free of charge. At each store, also, the prizes may be seen.

A professional carnival atmosphere will prevail, according to Mrs. Scurr, who said the fun booths along the midway include a fish pond, baseball throw, bird nest toss, nail pounding, ping-pong gun shoot and a musical chair cakewalk.

Barbecued hamburgers and hot dogs will be on sale all day, as well as soda pop, milk, coffee and do-nuts, ice cream and cake.

Proceeds from the bazaar will be used by the Church of the Ascension to help defray mounting operating costs.

Car Death Inquest Is October 16

An inquest into the death of Mrs. Valentine Ratliff, killed Sept. 25 on Sierra Madre Blvd., will be held at 10 a.m. Oct. 16 at Ripple Mortuary, Police Chief Gordon G. McMillan announced yesterday.

Mrs. Ratliff, 82, of 1332 S. First Ave., Arcadia, was hit by a car in front of the Woman's Clubhouse at about 7:30 p.m. and later died in Sierra Madre Hospital.

Police have not been able to determine whether the driver of the car, David R. Loose, 30, of 165 Wilson, struck Mrs. Ratliff when she was in the crosswalk.

Members of Mrs. Ratliff's family have started raising a fund in her memory. Contributions may be made to the Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Ratliff was a member.

Red Feather Meeting Tonight

Members of the Board of Directors of the Sierra Madre Community Chest will relay information to the workers regarding the current fund drive.

The Chest's goal this year is $10,500, and the amount collected each week will be recorded in the big Red Feather thermometer in Kersting Ct. The drive is scheduled to run through October.

The sixth annual fund-raising event of Holy Angeles Catholic PTA of Arcadia will be Saturday, Oct. 12, in the Arcadia estate of Leo Le Fave. Theme of this year's event is "Autumn Fantasy."

Approximately 1,000 guests are expected to attend.

Woman's Club Urges Better Street Lighting

A study of street lighting in Sierra Madre has almost been completed by the Southern California Edison Co., City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington told councilmen at their meeting Tuesday night.

His report followed a written protest from the Sierra Madre Woman's Club regarding the lighting at the crosswalk in front of the clubhouse, scene of the fatal accident Sept. 25 in which Mrs. Valentine Ratliff was killed.

The letter from the Woman's Club urged an "immediate improvement" in the lighting and also asked that the crosswalk be repainted.

MR. BEVINGTON said the Edison Co. survey will show the city exactly what it needs in the way of lighting. He added that the accident happened at twilight when street lighting is of little value.

He said also that the crosswalk is illuminated by "silhouette lighting" (lights on each side of the walk), considered by experts to be the best type for visibility. The crosswalk, he said, was recently painted.

The protest was referred to the Police Department for study.

The Council also discussed tree planting recommendations from the Planning Commission. The commission has prepared a list of what it considers the most desirable type of trees to plant in city parkways.

ALL MAJOR streets are included in the recommended planting scheme. Some of the trees which, the commission feels, would enhance the beauty of the city include Holly Oak, Magnolia, Liquid Amber, Jacaranda and many others.

The Council decided to consult an expert on trees before making a final decision. Copies of the Planning Commission recommendations may be obtained at the City Hall.

Also approved by the Council were specifications for a

King Show Has Crowd Buzzing

By Robert P. Jenkins

The opening of the new exhibit of paintings at the Sierra Madre Public Library set at least one record—the staying power of the crowd.

At a quarter to five the refreshments committee was making another batch of punch and local gallery-goers were still buzzing about the paintings and lithographs of Hayward King, a young Pasadenaan whose one-man show opened Sunday, Oct. 6. There were several reasons for the enthusiasm and interest of the "first-nighters." In this case it is difficult to separate the man from his work.

HAYWARD KING is a young Negro whose easy

PTA Starts Drive For Bond Approval

Door-to-Door Appeal Planned in Precincts

The Sierra Madre PTA is solidly behind the need for a $300,000 bond issue to build new classrooms and other facilities at Sierra Mesa School, it was revealed at the Board of Education meeting Monday night.

PTA officials at the Board session said they have started working on the bond election and plan to make a door-to-door drive to get out the vote.

Among those from the PTA who attended the meeting were Mrs. Charles Fretz, co-president, and Mrs. Lydia Clardy, an official of the organization.

PTA Strives For 1,000 Members

The Sierra Madre PTA is reaching into outer space for its membership contest theme and goal this year, during the two-week membership drive from Oct. 1 to Oct. 15.

Aiming at 1,000 members to surpass last year's 957, Mr. and Mrs. James Abernethy, membership chairman, are encouraging all parents, both fathers and mothers, other relatives and all citizens of Sierra Madre to join in support of the local schools and school children through the PTA and its projects of parent education, child health and safety, juvenile protection, sponsorship of youth character education groups, youth symphonies and others.

By the fifth day of the current drive, 660 memberships had been attained. On that day, Mrs. Summer's fourth grade class launched the first satellite by reaching 100 per cent return of the memberships, including their teacher. Other satellites will be launched as other classes reach the 100 per cent mark.

At the end of the drive, the classes, on the kindergarten-to-third grade level and the fourth-to-sixth grade level at both schools, which bring in the highest total number of memberships will receive cash prizes to use for classroom purposes.

Blood Drive Total Rises To 261 Pints

A total of 143 pints of blood were donated during the visit last Monday of the Red Cross Bloodmobile at the Woman's Clubhouse.

This brings the total contributed for the year to 261 pints, compared with 209 last year and 239 in 1955.

The Red Cross said that 157 people reported to give blood and that 14 of these were rejected for various medical reasons. Although pleased with the results, the Red Cross pointed out that the 1957 total still falls below the amount contributed in several years before 1955, when Sierra Madre's population was less than it now is.

Members of the canteen staff were Mrs. Victor Woehler, chairman; Mrs. Randolph Wood, Mrs. Victor Caffey, Mrs. Milo S. Murray, Mrs. Robert de Weese and Gale Moore.

Nurses' aides were Mrs. Paul Burton, Mrs. Henry A. Nelson and Sally Fairfield. General staff members were Mrs. Marjorie Ellis, Miss Gladys Kraft, Miss Elsa Kraft, Mrs. Paul Campion, Mrs. Warner, Jean O'Connor and Betty Carver.

Col. Charles Morrison was in charge of transportation; the local Nursery School furnished baby sitters, and Mrs. Gifford Eastwood was general chairman of the Bloodmobile program.

City Pioneer . . . 'Grandma Caley' Greet Friends on 96th Birthday

Mrs. Mary D. Caley, one of Sierra Madre's pioneers, celebrated her 96th birthday Sunday at the old family home at 233 Ramona.

Known affectionately as "Grandma Caley," she reportedly is one of the oldest persons living in the United States.

Although in delicate health, she still welcomes many of her old friends. She received many flowers, gifts and cards on her birthday.

Picasso Exhibit Starts at Caltech On October 14

The first in the new series of art exhibits at the California Institute of Technology will be open to the public in the lounge of Dabney Hall, Oct. 14 to Nov. 5, Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

The display will feature a collection of etchings from the Volland Suite by Picasso, including "Studio of Sculptor," "Minotaur," "The Rape" and "Sketchings of Rembrandt." Also included will be recent photographs of Picasso taken by his friend, Rene Batigne.

Mrs. Caley now lives with her two daughters, Mrs. Maybelle Barker and Mrs. Helen

New Ware Play Has 'Our Town' as Locale

By Edward L. Voorhees

The new season at Pasadena Playhouse has opened with "The Man on a Stick," comedy-drama of exciting domestic and business intrigue, skirting tragedy with rare humor and wit, and creating characters that are real.

The authors, brothers Leon and Harlan Ware, are well known personally to older residents of Sierra Madre, where they lived for several years. Both are known nationwide for their stories in "big time" magazines and for their programs on radio, TV, and for films.

The play program of "The Man on a Stick" states:

"THE ENTIRE action takes place in the living room of the Burton Travenner residence, Sierra Madre—a gracious and affectionate gesture from two of this town's most widely known former citizens; and Marvin Harbart has made the setting so attractive as to bring applause at the rise of the curtain, before a word has been spoken.

"Stu" Ervin, veteran of the TV series of that name, plays the central character, Burton Travenner, buyer for a whole-sale toy business, who in his off hours is a desultory reader of self-help manuals, and a whittler of wood figurines. One of these is an animated toy, a sample of which Burton has given to Edgar, the 8-year-old boy next door.

Burton is middle-aged, generous, lovable, and of a trusting nature. His 'teen-aged daughter, Janie (Carolyn Kearney), is of the same stuff, and in love with a young pre-law student of liberal arts courses at Caltech. Burton's young, second wife, Myrtle (Ruth Brady), is neither generous nor lovable, but smart, scheming and infatuated secretly, at first, with a younger schemer, Egan (Michael Hughes).

MEANWHILE, Myrtle's mother, Mrs. Sophie Newcomb, has established herself in what she hopes is permanency in the Travenner ménage, as cook, meddler, and tireless inquisitor of all guests. This part is played with magnificent realization of all its facets, by Queenie Smith.

The animated toy—a little man on a stick—manipulated by a string, emerges as a symbol, both of Burton himself and his subsequent fate. When his wife and Egan plot to make a fortune for themselves by exploiting the top, unknown to Burton, the audience suspense, aided by the boy next door, and Burton's amusingly absent-minded friend, old Judge Corp (George Meader), mounted to an exciting climax, which was "milked" by the actors somewhat more than was necessary.

This bit of direction, easily corrected, there remains a rapid, double-barreled solution that makes the punishment fit the crime, an A-1 curtain to a very human and persuasive drama that could happen as easily in New York or Hollywood as in Sierra Madre. To this observer, its film potentialities seem excellent—whether via the usual Broadway stage, or without.

MODELING FALL clothing in preparation for the fashion show and tea sponsored by the Women's Fellowship of Congregational Church are Mrs. Milton Emerson and her son, Brad. The theme of the show, scheduled Oct. 12 at 2 p.m. in Pritchard Hall, is "A Page From the Jet Age." Fashions will be shown by Youngland's and Fashion Future. In charge of the event are Mrs. Tom Solury, general chairman; Mrs. Louis Kortkamp, ticket sales; Mrs. Helen Haas, refreshments; Mrs. Joseph Custer, publicity; Mrs. Louis George and Mrs. Bert Embree, decorations.

Give Where You Live

October, as many of you know, is Red Feather Month in Sierra Madre.

The Red Feather is a symbol of the Community Chest which was organized to help the less fortunate. The Community Chest this year adopted a budget which actually is designed to help those who need it.

A large portion of the budget, in fact, is set aside to assist agencies that must depend on voluntary contributions to exist. Family Service, for example, is allocated $2,000; the Visiting Nurse Assn., $1,000; Children Hospital, $600.

Your contributions this year will help:

1. A needy and possibly destitute older person in Sierra Madre, through the Visiting Nurse.
2. An ill or disabled youngster in one of the hospitals.
3. A family in domestic difficulties, through Family Service.
4. Local youngsters through the Boy and Girl Scouts and Camp Fire Girls.

These are but a few of the ways your donations are put to work by your Community Chest.

The Community Chest motto is, "Give where you live and give at least a day's pay." This is excellent advice. You can be sure that your money will be used in a noble cause.

As a guide to where your dollars will go, the Chest budget is reprinted below.—H.W.E.

THREE CHEERS FOR IKE—By any journalistic standards I imagine that I qualify as a critic of the Eisenhower administration and big money Republicans generally. There have been times at the White House press conference when I had a feeling that the President and Jim Hagerty both wished that I were not there.

I cite these qualifications lest anyone think I am getting soft or becoming a blind admirer of the President, because of what I am about to say. And what I want to say is this:

A majority of U.S. editorial writers, by no means Southerners only, have failed to rise to the occasion in Little Rock. I believe the President did. The carping criticism that has followed the President's moves into that tragic area were unworthy of American journalism. There comes a time when critics and supporters of the Chief Executive must close ranks against the irresponsibles. The Little Rock crisis was such a time.

SO FAR as liberal editorialists are concerned, it seemed to me that many were more carping in their criticism than even the segregationists who could not be expected to like the course the President followed. There were comments about Ike acting too late, about how quiescent he had been up to this point on the integration issue, about his lack of resolution and how he might have shown "leadership" before the situation came to a head.

I've said many of these things myself in the past. But they were no longer the issue. The question now was whether he took the course that the situation demanded? If you agree that he did then back him up, without sniping. If you think he was wrong, why then say so. But it seems to be too self-righteous and too much "I told you so" for typewriter generalizations to be carrying on as they have.

THE EROSION OF THE OFFICE—Not too long before his heart attack in 1955 the President was talking about his health. He said a certain "erosion" took place in the human body of any one who held the job he holds. There

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

There's still a good chance that Mr. Dave Beck and Mr. James Hoff will serve longer terms in jail than in elective office.

I CAN'T make any predictions about Mr. Knight and Mr. Knowland, but I suspect the one Mr. Nixon makes a deal with will win out.

I HAVE long regarded Mr. Eisenhower as a President of many fumbles, but I think he is dead right in his handling of Governor Faubus and hope that grandstander really has to crawl. We all have our prejudices, but at heart we all realize that it is unfair for any American to deny any other American his fair chance to earn and learn and develop the best that is in him, and that the best American is the one who does most for the good of our country.

COUNCIL OKAYS WORK ON CITY SEWER PLAN. I'm happy to see that, but I suspect the public needs a lot of education, or the city and county need the guidance of analysts who will do the best they can for all of us taxpayers. Del Mar, which isn't incorporated, was putting in sewers when we moved down here, a private company handling the job. A good many persons are convinced that private companies always do things better than public ownership does, but that hasn't been the case here.

When I inquired I was told every one had to pay $500, in advance, to get sewer connection, I paid, but a lot of my neighbors haven't and aren't connected yet. A few miles away, at Cardiff, one of my neighbors here is building a couple of houses. All he had to pay for a connection was $87, and apparently the terrain there presented more problems than does the terrain here. I certainly am not competent to argue the right or wrong of this, and that is just my point. What average citizen is competent to argue it? I paid $500 because I assumed that was fair and the sewers would be a benefit to the community.

But since my neighbor had to pay only $87 for just as good a connection, apparently, I begin to wonder if I hadn't been something of a sucker. A great many public benefits are unjustified, private benefits to certain favored person.

There are many cases in which certain contractors form a combine. They submit bids, all right, but they are not really competitive bids. There are even cases in which the surplus gravy is divided up between bidders and nonbidders—secretly, of course.

Any important improvement such as sewers puts a serious financial drain on a good many property owners who can barely manage to hold on to their property, in the face of steadily rising taxes and living costs. I think Sierra Madreans are lucky to live in a town in which the Council habitually tries to protect the citizens in every way possible.

I hope that in the matter of sewers the Council will be more careful than some communities have been. Cardiff, of course, is named for a town in Wales, and those Welshmen are noted for carefulness. Are there any towns named Edinburgh in California?

Why a Chamber?

Dollar Days, the recent sales promotion sponsored by the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, totals a hectic period of planning plus an equally hectic three-day sale.

It is also fervently hoped that the final total added to the profits of local merchants. For without a prosperous business community, the entire town would suffer.

This, in brief, is why the Chamber of Commerce exists. It is in business to help the merchants stay in business.

Despite considerable obstacles, the greatest of which involves a limited budget, the local Chamber of Commerce has progressed substantially during the past year.

Some of the projects sponsored by the Chamber include off-street parking (we now have three lots), control of out-of-town solicitors, the Diamond Jubilee, the Christmas Decorating Contest, the Buy-at-Home Campaign, and many others.

In addition, the Chamber sends out letters almost daily to out-of-state residents seeking information about Sierra Madre, and also answers numerous phone calls regarding living conditions, rents, etc., in the city.

All of us, businessmen in particular, owe a vote of thanks to Robert Green, Chamber president, Anthony Cavalli, secretary-manager, and to the handful of others who have and will continue to work in the best interests of Sierra Madre.

Letters to the Editor

HOSPITAL COMPLETED

After many years of planning, the modern new Sierra Madre Hospital has finally been completed. It is my wish now to thank those many persons in the community who have helped my father and myself with these plans, and for their faithfulness through this difficult period.

The Sierra Madre Civic Club, as a group, have been especially helpful to us in the opening of the hospital. Our individual thanks are to Mr. Mitchell of our local bank, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Louk, Miss Clara Sykes and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Layton. Many others have helped openly as well as those who have helped and wish to remain anonymous.

Sierra Madre can now boast as modern a hospital as any community has, big or small. We now have 40 beds fully staffed and fully equipped, operating day and night for any one who needs care. These 40 beds include seven bassinets for babies, a pediatrics ward, two modern equipped surgeries, a modern first-aid room for emergencies and an up to date obstetrical department.

The laboratory and X-ray departments are equipped now to do any procedure, day or night. Each department has two full-time, licensed technicians. The laboratory now has its own blood bank with blood on hand for most emergencies. The X-ray department is under the direction of Dr. Melville L. Jacobs, who is assistant director of the City of Hope and it ranks high in its standards for X-ray technique and interpretation. To date the hospital has had over 600 admissions including approximately 100 deliveries and 220 surgeries; and has treated 75 emergency first-aid cases.

The staff of our hospital now comprises over 70 doctors of the community. It includes the outstanding general practitioners and the specialties of every major field in medicine in this area. The executive committee, which is comprised of eight leading community physicians, has conscientiously met each month to evaluate the qualifications and performances of each physician on the staff and has done an outstanding job and deserves a great vote of thanks for the fine start our hospital had had.

Because of the continued occupancy of the hospital we cannot offer open house for the public. However, we will be pleased to show groups through the hospital. They may contact Mr. Larry C. Lomax, the hospital administrator, or Mrs. Thelma O'Donnell, hospital supervisor, and arrange for a personal tour.

The parking lot behind the hospital is for doctors and emergencies only, but visitors and groups wishing to see the hospital may park in the Medical Center parking lots to the west.

Sincerely,
GEORGE W. GROTH Jr., M.D.

Dear Sir:

What has become of that hilarious column, "Around the Square," written by Marjorie Parker? I used to enjoy reading it.

Sincerely,
MARJORIE PARKER.

The cost of living (just plain old living, not including college tuition and small girl's shoes) has driven Mrs. Parker into industry where she is undoubtedly slowing down the wheels.

But don't think it wasn't fun writing the column.

It was.

The Culinary Kettle . . .

Unusual Touch Adds Zest To Mrs. McGeary's Cuisine

By Toni Maurin SY. 7-9634

If you should chance to ask Mrs. Dewey (Elsie) McGeary, 357 N. Auburn, what her favorite flavors would be, I am sure she would answer without hesitation, "onions and garlic."

She enjoys a reputation of being a wonderful cook and does many clever and unusual things to earn that title. For instance, just before serving chicken salad, she tosses it with Chinese noodles which gives it that extra flavor and crispness that makes it just a little different than any other chicken salad. She delights in serving vegetables prepared in unusual ways as these two recipes will prove:

STUFFED ZUCCHINI (Serves 6 or 8)

Parboil six or eight 4-inch zucchinis whole until slightly tender in salted water. Remove and cut in half lengthwise. Scoop out centers and set aside.

In a heavy frying pan cook one-half pound pork sausage with a minced garlic and inside of squash. Keep stirring, and cook until meat is done but not browned. Add one raw egg, cracker crumbs to thicken, and salt and pepper to taste.

Stir well and mound back into the scooped zucchini shells and place in a flat baking dish with parmesan cheese generously sprinkled on top. Bake for 30 minutes in a preheated 350° oven.

SPANISH EGG PLANT

Peel and slice one medium size egg plant. Dip in salted, well beaten egg and then in fine cracker crumbs. Saute in cooking oil till golden brown and tender. Set aside and prepare the following sauce:

Saute three large onions sliced fine and one clove of minced garlic in cooking oil until transparent. Add one can of tomato paste diluted with an equal amount of water and one tablespoon of chili powder and salt and pepper to taste. Stir well and heat thoroughly.

Grate one-half pound of tillamook or cracker barrel cheese and set aside. Place a layer of egg plant in a casserole and cover with sauce and then cheese. Repeat until all the egg plant is used and top with sauce and cheese. Bake in a preheated 300° F. oven for one hour and serve. Watch everyone come back for seconds.

MRS. McGEARY says her only distinctive asset lies in the fact that she is a third generation Californian. I can assure you that is one of the least of her assets. She has been very active in the Sierra Madre Woman's Club and this year has spearheaded their new project, the Thrift Shop.

I asked her if she had any hobbies and she said that if playing bridge could be considered a hobby, then she had one.

She says she is completely surrounded by African violets in every type of container. It seems her husband can't bear to thin them out without repotting them, so consequently, they are sneaking up on her.

Mr. McGeary is with the Southern California Green Houses, Inc. Her only daughter, Ernestine, is in the personnel department of the General Hospital in Los Angeles.

Jeffrey Buchers, Betty Trones Return From Hawaiian Honeymoon

MRS. JEFFREY M. BUCHERS

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Martin Buchers have returned from a Hawaiian honeymoon following their marriage Sept. 21 in Mount Olivet Lutheran Church, Minneapolis.

The bridegroom is the son of the Hal M. Buchers, 3283 Mesaloe Lane.

The bride, daughter of the Herman H. Troneses, Minneapolis, designed her own satin redingote worn over delicate embroidered nylon tulle. Her veil was held by a pearl and rhinestone crown and she carried a white bouquet of orchids and roses.

Chrysanthemums complemented the pumpkin-color chiffon and rust velvet gowns and cartwheel hats worn by Miss Lila Carlson, maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Misses Judy Vav Valkenburg, Karen Sorum, Nancy Bell and Nancy Deardoff. Jill Renee Kopacz was flower girl.

Brad Sauters was best man. The bride's brother, Kenneth W. Trones, ushered with Robert Marshall, Lt. Ransome S. Cooke and Darrell Burgess.

Lt. Cook flew from London to the wedding.

Kathy Beam, Zimmerman Wed in L.A.

Kathy Marie Beam and Robert B. Zimmerman, both of Sierra Madre, were united in marriage at 7 p.m. Oct. 4 in the Moore Prayer Chapel, First Baptist Church, Los Angeles.

The wedding was followed by a dinner party attended by relatives.

The bride and groom are honeymooning in Catalina and will make their home in South Pasadena.

GOP Sets John Morley Talk

John Morley, world reporter and lecturer, will discuss "The Global Picture Uncensored," Monday, Oct. 28, at Elliot Junior High School, 2148 N. Lake, Altadena. The lecture will start at 8 p.m.

His appearance, sponsored by the Republicans of the 48th Assembly District, follows his recent return from his 21st trip to Russia, the Middle East and Far East. Mr. Morley, who started as a foreign correspondent in 1931, is author of the nationally syndicated newspaper column, "After Hours."

He reports from experience and emphasizes the positive aspects of world affairs "which stimulate our hopes for peace."

His appearance before members and guests of the 48th Assembly will be non-political in nature, according to Dr. Ross LeLansky, president of the organization.

Electric cooking keeps more juice in roast chicken—because it's flameless!

When you cook electrically there's no draft of constantly changing air because there's no flame. (Flame, you see, needs air to breathe. So a flame-heated oven constantly inhales dry air, exhales moist air—literally cooks meat in a hot draft that evaporates good juices.) In an electric oven there's no draft of dry air. You cook with moist heat. As a result, more juice stays in the meat...and the meat tastes better.

Electric cooking is far cooler, too. As much as 16° cooler. The reason is obvious: electric cooking puts the heat directly into the food, not into the room. Electric cooking is cleaner, too, because it's flameless. There are no by-products of combustion to dirty walls and darken your bright pans. Truly, it's the only modern way to cook. Why not see your appliance dealer for a demonstration of the new electric ranges?

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin

I get kind of frantic when I think of the life that faces us all in the not too far distant future. I was talking to a man about electronics the other evening, and he said it wouldn't be too long before window screens would be a thing of the past. All that would be necessary, he explained, would be to throw beams across the frame and the fly would be instantly repelled, providing the electricity didn't fail.

Already they have electronic ovens that will cook a frozen roast in a matter of a very few minutes. Instead of getting a hammer and screwdriver out at 5 o'clock and heating my meat into frozen submission I could now, if I chose, wait till 6 and ask what was desired for dinner. Put a 20-pound turkey in the oven and shortly have a dinner that it would take the old-fashioned girls hours to cook. I for one intend to stick to that old way as long as possible. Half the fun of eating is anticipating the taste and enjoying the savory aromas as they drift from a good "old-fashioned" plain electric oven.

MR. AND MRS. H. M. Bucher of 3283 Mesaloe Lane spent a few days in Phoenix, Ariz., last week. They took their houseguest, Mr. Bud Knight, up to show him the sights.

I WAS sorry to learn that the D. W. McAlpine family of 1260 Sierra Madre Villa has moved to Benton Harbor, Mich. Mr. McAlpine has been transferred to the St. Joseph office of the Whirlpool Co. near Benton Harbor. Little Heather has one big objection. She had hoped to live in a three-story Eastern type home and instead they have a typically California style.

MR. AND MRS. Edwin Pyle of 1432 Old House Road enjoyed a two-week visit with their daughter, Mrs. Ron Perry, who came to stay with them while her husband was out on maneuvers.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Griswold Jr. of 1215 Sierra Madre Villa recently entertained 18 of their family at a luau.

THE E. MARSHALL Harris family and the John Fricke family recently spent the weekend at Lake Isabella in Kern County, camping and water skiing.

MR. JOSEPH PHILIPSON of 1485 Old House Road returned home last Friday after an extensive three-week business trip in the East. He covered Washington, Chicago and New York in his travels.

MR. AND MRS. Dave Elmer of 3480 Fairpoint had Mrs. Elmer's uncle and aunt, Mr. Alfred and Miss Olga vonNornmann, from Fallbrook, Calif., up for the weekend recently to celebrate their son Douglas' eighth birthday.

MR. CARL DIETZEL of 3155 Meyer Loa Lane, returned last Friday after a six-day trip up Palo Alto way.

OUR BRIDGE club of many years standing gave a farewell party last week for Mrs. Lorne Pratt, who recently moved to Hisperia. Among the participants were Mesdames Leroy Toms, Robert Bettencourt, Alkan Armstrong, Donald Jackson, Ralph Hutchinson and Wayne Stinnet.

THE CANYON Vaqueros, a group of young horseback riders, are busily planning for their horse show that is coming up the end of this month. They are out selling ads and training their animals to the finest of condition. The show will be held at the Eaton Canyon Stables and I'll give you the date later.

Hastings Teen Times

By Joan Kaponya
Elgin 5-2015

Hi! Tomorrow the Football Circus tickets will be sold in your classrooms. Let's try to have our school sell the most. If we sell over the quota, we get to see a movie. Last year we saw "The Glenn Miller Story" and this year the movie promises to be far better.

The Assembly last week was a lot of fun. Dr. Wilson led the students in singing Marshall songs and other popular numbers.

BARBARA REYNOLDS, went to Santa Barbara last weekend to rest and get some more sun tan. She left after school on Friday and spent two glorious days at Santa Barbara. Barbara really had a ball.

ELECTIONS! Here are the grade level election results: seventh grade—Barbara Paige, Charles Moore, Chris Carroll; eighth grade—Mary Lou Worth, Silvia Hays, Bjorn Sedlenick; ninth grade—Molly Reddon, Susan Sprankle, Dick Buccola, John Lappe; tenth grade—Chris Dinwiddie, Dixie Grieve, Tom Dalzell, Toby Spessard.

WE SAW a preview at the Academy last Friday which was really excellent. Title was "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue," with Richard Egan, Jan Sterling, Julia Adams and Dan Duryea. Don't miss it.

TOMORROW the first football game of the season for Marshall will be held between our "B" team and Wilson. Good luck, boys. The first school dance will be held on Oct. 18. Let's all go-go and have a real turnout. Judging by last year's affairs, it should be a lot of fun.

AS MOST of you know, the game between PHS and Compton was a big success for the "B" team and a loss for the "A" squad. The "B's" won 40 to 12 and the "A's" lost 26 to 0. Among those who enjoyed the night of football were Barbara Carlin, Jean Hoffman, Lillian Guttman, Nino Leonard, Joan Koche, Dennis DeCicco, and Paul Kaponya. Also, Turn to Page 3

Sports in Haste . . .

Proper Attire for Game As Important as Contest

By Charles Ayres

To discuss sports' "big picture" a guy has to be awfully flexible and broadminded. Never let it be said that the subject deals only with those that have well-trained and conditioned muscles than can do their bidding on the field of competitive battle.

For gosh's sake (29), (sic) and older, think of the thing that has lasted longer in your memory than the goal line stand in '38 or the bases loaded homer in the last of the ninth. You're darned right! It is that silly looking raccoon coat that used to be the rage of the boys in the ivy league.

TO EXAMINE this thing from the proper perspective, a guy has to realize that for the number of actual participants, there are many times the number of spectators and anybody knows that to be properly clad for the sport is of the utmost importance.

For example, take the dull parts (generally time outs) in that autumnal madness called football. A guy's attention is naturally drawn to that little blonde in seat 104 of row 57. She's wearing the very latest thing—the fuzzy panchito of white wool with brilliant red sateen lining and full sleeves with oversized collar to keep m-lady's neck warm even though it's apt to be 90 degrees in the shade if you can find any around here.

Its natural complement is the washable light beige, softly styled full flounce tweed skirt from Maggy Rupe's boutique, if you please. If the time out is prolonged it is only natural that one's mind dwells on the unseen but not unnoticed fact that the foundation garments are obviously of sheerest cellon devised from many hours of research in the DuPont laboratories and topped by the very elastic Maidenform.

OR PERHAPS your eye catches the little brunette cutie in the row ahead who is bedecked in the heavenly blue and soft silk and cashmere sweater creation from Joe Izentats' boutique complete with ultra soft elbow length pigskin gloves and the flounced skirt of black and blue threads to emphasize the school colors.

To the disbeliever, let me suggest that he make a check of the space allotted him in the Mr. and Mrs. wardrobe closet and the seasonal (monthly) request for remittance from the local dress shoppe. It may shock him into (1) taking an extra hitch in his derriered ivy league belt, or (2) giving up sports.

'80 Days' Theme For Dance Party Saturday Night

From preliminary details, the monthly party of the Hastings Ranch Dance Club Saturday night should be one to remember. The theme will be "Around the World in 80 Days," with guests asked to wear costume from any country, including the U.S.A.

The party, to be held at the Joe Cummins home, 605 Rim, will begin with a swim in the pool, continue with cocktails on the patio, barbecued steak dinner and finally dancing in the playroom and the patio.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Cummins, host couples for the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Dan Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Pruitt and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buttcane.

Reservations have been made by Mr. and Mrs. Don Alsop, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Boden, Mr. and Mrs. Cal Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Bush, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Edsel Curry, Mr. and Mrs. John Fricke, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Harris.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hurter, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hurlig, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Lenney, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lubisch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Masser, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Patch, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pooler, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Ray.

And Mr. and Mrs. Phil Saurenman, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Steffens, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Whited, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Helling, Mr. and Mrs. David Zinsmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vanniman, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stratiff and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bickler.

New Officers Selected by Ranch Guild

New officers and committee members have been selected by the Hastings Ranch Guild of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Mrs. Kenneth Christianson, president, announced yesterday.

They are Mrs. Harold Leffingwell, first vice president; Mrs. Dominic Giangregorio, second vice president; Mrs. Victor Harris, recording secretary; Mrs. Everett Hendricks, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Bolderman, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Bremer, membership chairman; Mrs. Le Roy Frandsen, party chairman; Mrs. Gordon Wright, bridge; Mrs. Glen Highman, telephone; Mrs. C. N. Rowley, historian; Mrs. Harry Elwood, placement; and Mrs. W. R. Ewing, publicity.

Selections were made at the first board meeting of the year in the home of Mrs. Richard McClain, outgoing president.

Schooners Say 'Thanks' For Support

The moon was shining. The air was balmy and smelled deliciously of barbecuing hamburgers. Hastings "ranchers" and their friends from two months to 92 years were there to enjoy the evening.

And enjoy it they did. The Schooner Club of Trinity Presbyterian Church, sponsors of the barbecue party on the church grounds as a fund-raising project, report happily much success in their first such venture.

According to the committee in charge, 600 people were needed to make the affair a success. There were many more than that number. And the committee asked The Sierra Madre News to help them express their gratitude to all the neighbors and friends who participated.

Field PTA To Sponsor Play Night

Eugene Field PTA will forego its annual fall carnival this year in favor of two events, one specifically for the children and the other for parents and their adult friends.

A circus is planned for the children, the date to be announced, and a play night at Pasadena Playhouse is set for Nov. 19 for mothers and fathers, grandparents and friends.

The play will star K. T. Stevens in the sophisticated comedy, "Janus," which was well received when it played with Joan Bennett at the Huntington-Hartford Theater several months ago.

Tickets for the play may be purchased from room mothers, and since the number is limited, they should be obtained at once, according to the PTA officers. Details of the sale are being handled by room mother chairman, Mrs. John Kane.

The carnival, which has been held every year since Field opened, has been the principal source of funds for PTA expenses. The Association, acting at the suggestion of the executive board that the two events be held instead this year, expressed belief that the funds raised the new way would equal or surpass the carnival proceeds.

Details of the circus will be announced later.

AUDUBON TRIP

The Pasadena Audubon Society will make a field trip to Brookfield Park this Friday. The bus will leave Colorado and Los Robles at 8:06 a.m.

Nursery School Plans Fall Style Show Oct. 19

Fall fashions will be displayed and luncheon served at a style show planned Saturday, Oct. 19, by the Hastings Ranch Nursery School at the Pasadena Athletic Club.

Luncheon is scheduled for 12:30 p.m., to be followed by day-into-evening fashions presented by Lorraine Sutherland of Alhambra.

Mrs. Max Marco is chairman of the event, with Mrs. Edwin Watts serving as ticket chairman. Tickets are $5, including the luncheon, and proceeds will be used for nursery school maintenance and equipment. Further information is available from Mrs. Watts at ELgin 5-1320.

Other committee members are Mrs. Edwin O. Donald, in charge of decorations; Mrs. Charles J. Haver, Mrs. Colin M. LeSeuvre, Philip Calhoun, Mrs. Robert D. Jugan, Mrs. Donald E. Lovelace, Mrs. John M. Martin and Mrs. A. B. Senne.

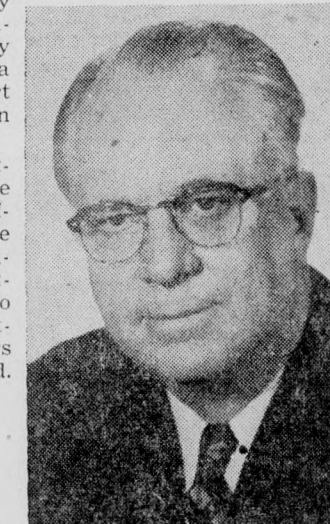

Chrysanthemums and other fall blossoms will be featured in decorations.

Festivals of 1957 Opens Padua's New Season

The Mexican Players launched the 1957-58 season at Padua Hills Theater with an array of songs, dances and musical treats with the opening of "Festivals of 1957" last week.

"Festivals," which runs through Nov. 16, starts as Casilda Amador and Luis Abundiz present the fiery national dance of Mexico, and climaxes with a number featuring the entire company doing a popular Mexican dance which reflects European influence.

"Festivals" is presented nightly at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday with matinees at 2:30 p.m. Wednesdays and Saturdays.

DR. RUSSELL V. DELONG, the new president of Pasadena College, was inducted into the office last Tuesday. More than 3,000 persons attended the ceremonies in the college's Memorial Auditorium.

Mrs. Dooley will show pictures of the trip and answer questions of members after her discussion. Circle 2 is in charge of the luncheon.

The play will star K. T. Stevens in the sophisticated comedy, "Janus," which was well received when it played with Joan Bennett at the Huntington-Hartford Theater several months ago.

Tickets for the play may be purchased from room mothers, and since the number is limited, they should be obtained at once, according to the PTA officers. Details of the sale are being handled by room mother chairman, Mrs. John Kane.

The Association, acting at the suggestion of the executive board that the two events be held instead this year, expressed belief that the funds raised the new way would equal or surpass the carnival proceeds.

Details of the circus will be announced later.

The Pasadena Audubon Society will make a field trip to Brookfield Park this Friday. The bus will leave Colorado and Los Robles at 8:06 a.m.

Carry a Tune? Then Join Field Mothersingers

There are openings in the now famed Mothersingers of Eugene Field, according to this year's chairman, Mrs. John LaMontagne.

If you like to sing, can carry a tune and would enjoy a combined weekly rehearsal and mid-morning coffee, then Mrs. LaMontagne would like to hear from you.

Mothersingers meet from 9 to 11:15 a.m. Tuesdays, and perform throughout the year at various PTA and other community functions.

FDR Club Sets Autumn Party Saturday Night

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Democratic Club will entertain at "The Autumn Party," a buffet supper, at 7 p.m. Saturday at the home of the Bryant R. Burtons, 755 Hampton, Arcadia.

Prominent Democratic party leaders will be present to celebrate the conclusion of the 1957 Dollars for Democrats Days.

A number of members of the Hastings Ranch Democratic Club will attend "The Autumn Party."

Cub Pack 383 Sets Goblin Meet Theme

Don Benito Cub Pack 383 will meet next Thursday night in the school auditorium. Since October's theme is Ghosts and Goblins, cuts and parades are invited to attend in gay and devilish costume. Visitors are welcome.

Planning for the meeting and other events coming up, the pack committee will meet tonight in the teachers' lunch room at Don Benito.

For parents interested in joining with their sons in Pack 383's cubbing program, Mrs. Yolanda Schneider, as den mother chairman, will supply the necessary information. Her number is ELgin 5-3164.

The pack recently held a successful trash can drive. According to Ted Spence, pack committee chairman, the drive was "way over and above expectations. We of Pack 383 are grateful that the people of this area accepted our public service program with such enthusiasm."

Chi Omega Alumnae Set Fall Fashion Luncheon

Chi Omega Pasadena area alumnae will present AKI-NO-MATSURI, Festival of Fall, including Japanese-inspired fashion show and luncheon at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday at Green-oaks, 1160 W. Orange Grove, Arcadia.

Kow Kaneko will show her collection of custom fashions for Western women, featuring exotic fabrics selected in the Orient. Japanese Koto music by Kiyoko Ogawa and Miko Eto will provide an appropriate background during the fashion show. Japanese dancers will entertain with authentic dances. The gardens at Green-oaks will be given decorative Japanese decor.

Invitations for the event are of chrysanthemum yellow printed in Japanese red and illustrated with a charming Japanese dancer.

Mrs. Carlton B. Tibbets and Mrs. John Morris are co-chairmen of the benefit and have been assisted by these committee members:

Mrs. J. Thornton McCarthy and Mrs. Langdon H. Tannehill, luncheon; Mrs. Harrington Cochran, decorations; Mrs. George Newhouse, invitations; Mrs. James R. Young, programs; Mrs. Gordon L. Harding, reservations; Mrs. W. M. Goodman, hostesses; Mrs. W. L. Rohlfis, properties; Mrs. L. T. Greiner, special surprises, and Mrs. Wayne H. Knight, publicity.

Pasadena area alumnae of Chi Omega have for many years contributed to the support of Casa Colina Rehabilitation Center, which is now being expanded to be one of the most complete rehabilitation centers in the nation. Casa Colina will receive all funds derived from the benefit for the new building fund.

AKI-NO-MATSURI means, in Japanese, Festival of Fall, which is what these members of Chi Omega Alumnae are preparing for. Standing is Kow Kaneko, who will show her collection of custom fashion, and Mrs. Peter W. Madsen. Seated are Mrs. Robert W. Anderson and Mrs. John B. Morris.

AUTO CLUB MOTORLOG

Apples, Fall Colors, Scent Make Oak Glen Appealing

To experience a delightfully fragrant and scenic motor-log episode at this time of the year, one can hardly do better than taking a leisurely drive to the Yucaipa-Oak Glen area, advises the Automobile Club of Southern California. For this is apple country—and it is also one of the few hideaways in Southern California where autumn colors rendezvous.

The richness of color produced by the green trees and the red and yellow apples borne by them, plus the attractively rolling terrain that surrounds Oak Glen, add up to one of Nature's loveliest autumn landscapes.

This scenic treat combined with the incomparable fragrance of the orchards is more than enough to make Oak Glen a veritable haven for those who like apples in any form—fresh off the tree, as cider or in pies. All are readily obtainable—and in large quantities, of course. (A reliable source reports that last year visitors bought almost 250,000 bushels of apples and about 50,000 gallons of cider.)

There are also ample picnic grounds throughout the area for those who can't wait to get home to partake of their apple fare.

At this point it might be well to explain that the route suggested by the Club's Touring Bureau does not play favorites in the matter of fruit. Starting from Los Angeles, via the Pasadena Freeway, the trip proceeds along US 66 through citrus country (Foothill Boulevard), vineyards (Etiwanda-Fontana), more citrus country (San Bernardino-Redlands) and cherry orchards (Beaumont-Moreno). The homeward leg of this circle trip, via US 60, goes through Riverside, Mira Loma, Ontario, Pomona and Covina, which is also citrus and vineyard country.

Regardless of your preference—apples, oranges or grapes—a round-trip is 132 miles.

Also on tonight's agenda is a "toy party," where members may do early holiday shopping for children.

A word to the sharpie is not only sufficient, but usually altogether too much.

PICNICS—Delightful picnic grounds abound in the Oak Glen area, which has about 555 acres of trees. The community lies at the base of Wilshire Peak. Ample picnic grounds are also at the visitor's disposal in Beaumont, Cherry Valley, Yucaipa and Calimesa.

Mrs. Hitchcock Is Hostess to Delta Zetas

Pasadena-Foothill Delta Zeta alumnae will open the fall season with a meeting and Italian dinner tonight at the home of Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, 3635 Greenhill.

Assisting Mrs. Fred Baner Jr., chairman, will be Mrs. Charles W. Weis, Mrs. Jay P. Phillips, Mrs. Jack P. R. Robinson and Miss Juliana Knighton.

Delta Zetas of the local alumnae are putting final touches on plans for a Founders' Day dinner and program at the Knickerbocker Hotel in Hollywood on Oct. 24, according to Mrs. Phillips, president.

In addition to discussion of this program, tonight's meeting will include travel films of Hawaii and Canada, shown by a member, Miss Barbara Griffith, who recently returned after internment in Hawaii as an occupational therapist.

Also on tonight's agenda is a "toy party," where members may do early holiday shopping for children.

RECORD DIVIDEND

The highest quarterly dividend payment ever made by a savings and loan association was paid by Home Savings and Loan for the quarter ending Sept. 30, 1957. According to Charles Brinton, treasurer of Home Savings, dividends paid on withdrawable shares totaled over $4,000,000 for the quarter just concluded. Pharmacy Week October 6-12

This is National Pharmacy Week—during which the nation is paying its annual tribute to a man who, together with the doctor and nurse, comprise our nation's health team.

Today there are more than 100,000 registered pharmacists in this country and about 55,000 drugstores. The first drugstore—or apothecary shop—in this country was founded in the village that became Boston in 1632, just 12 years after the Pilgrims landed.

Donna Compton (how about that name!) saw the PHS-Compton games; she was up from Brawley for the weekend.

We were sorry to see Don Sutherland injured during the game. Hope he has a quick recovery so he can play again soon. Don is a former Marshallite.

LAST TUESDAY, tenth grade girls interested in Y-Teens signed up in room 123. There was quite a turnout for the coming year of activities. Bye for now. See you next week.

John Woehler In Active Training

Pvt. John L. Woehler II, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Woehler, 718 Manzanita, recently began the second phase of six months' active military training under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort MacArthur.

Woehler is receiving eight weeks of advanced training after having completed basic combat training at Fort Ord.

He is a 1955 graduate of Stanford University, a 1957 graduate of the American Institute for Foreign Trade, and a member of Sigma Delta Pi Fraternity.

Arthritis Is Too Serious For Self-Treatment

(Presented as a public service by the Foothill Branch of the Los Angeles County Medical Association)

This is the sixth and last in a series of articles discussing drugs and devices which informed sources—the medical profession, government authorities and reputable manufacturers—agree should not be sold to the public for the purposes of self-medication.

Previously discussed were drugs and devices for baldness, moles, eyelashes, rheumatism, wrinkles, high blood pressure, piles, sinus trouble, hormone deficiency, diabetes, bunions, anemia, eyebrows, health foods, height increasing, defective vision, alcoholism, diagnosis, epilepsy, skin blemishes and pyorrhea.

ARTHRITIS—No known drug, preparation or device may be truthfully advertised to the public as a cure, remedy or complete treatment for arthritis. This is too complicated and serious a condition for self-treatment.

Although certain products in some cases may afford limited temporary relief from the pain associated with arthritis, and although medical research reports great progress with certain recently discovered drugs, attempts to self-treat the disease with preparations may be worse than useless.

The possible relief they offer is far outweighed by the irreparable injury which may be done to those users who thus neglect proper medical treatment.

EYE DISEASES—The human eye is a complex and delicate mechanism and should not be tampered with by the unskilled. No known mineral waters act as saline laxatives and some have mild antacid properties, but none is possessed of magical therapeutic virtues. They should never be used as a substitute for proper treatment of serious diseases.

SKIN PEELS—If they are strong enough to be effective, skin peels are not regarded as safe for self-treatment. Such removal of surface blemishes as skin peels may accomplish will be temporary. Skin peels are not effective for conditions due to other than local or external causes.

MINERAL WATERS—Some

mineral waters act as saline laxatives and some have mild antacid properties, but none is possessed of magical therapeutic virtues. They should never be used as a substitute for proper treatment of serious diseases.

SKIN PEELS—If they are strong enough to be effective, skin peels are not regarded as safe for self-treatment. Such removal of surface blemishes as skin peels may accomplish will be temporary. Skin peels are not effective for conditions due to other than local or external causes.

TABACCO HABIT CURES—There is no known drug or combination of drugs that can be truthfully offered to the public to cure or overcome tobacco habit or permanently eliminate the desire for tobacco. A simple determination to stop, backed up by will power, is the best way to moderate or abstain from smoking.

Garden Notes . . .

Attractive Shrubs May Thrive in Shady Nooks

Gardeners possessing shady planting spots are indeed fortunate—and fortunately, nearly all gardeners have such an area. For it is in such shady places that many attractive shrubs thrive, advises the California Association of Nurserymen.

Under trees, between buildings, on the north side of the home, or wherever it is, the shady planting area provides a unique opportunity to experiment with fascinating textures, light and colors.

Many shrubs which are suited to shady areas have glossy leaves, which beautifully show off filtered sunlight, or light reflected from other surfaces.

ONE SUCH glossy-leaved shrub is the evergreen Delavay Osmanthus (osmanthus delavayi), perhaps best known for its small, white, spring-blooming flowers. The Osmanthus is also a good "light reflector" for shady areas.

Its tiny, dark-green notched leaves grow on gently arching branches. This slow grower eventually reaches six feet and is hardy throughout California, though it should be protected from strong winds, and prefers slightly acid soil.

For a startling effect in semi-shade, many gardeners prefer another glossy-leaved shrub, the Fatsia Japonica (also called aralia sieboldii). This lush, semi-tropical plant has large dark leaves, often more than a foot wide. Fatsia is a tall plant and an excellent tub specimen, tolerant of all soils. Several varieties, with variegated leaves, also are available.

To definitely brighten the shady spot, the unusual foliage of the Gold Dust Plant (aucuba japonica variegata) is ideal. Living up to its name, this medium growing shrub has gold-flecked toothed leaves growing thickly on its branches.

When placed adjacent to darker plants requiring similar growing conditions (such as camellia or daphne), the Gold Dust Plant provides eye-catching highlights. Two plants, a male and a female, are necessary to produce bright red berries in winter, requires little attention after planting.

Yesterday - Today - and Tomorrow (brunfelsia calycina floribunda) is another evergreen shade-lover which thrives to 20' F., growing in compact form to six feet. Its unusual name stems from the abrupt change in flower-color in three days from purple to lavender to white.

It is an especially useful plant because its very fragrant flowers have a long spring blooming season. This interesting plant thrives best in rich, slightly acid soil with good drainage. It provides a highly distinctive effect when planted under high branching trees.

A successful background planting for a shaded area may be achieved with the Japanese Viburnum, which also provides dark-green glossy leaves. This easy-growing plant yields cheerful red berries in autumn. Its particular asset, besides requiring little attention, is its 10-foot height and spread.

FOR COLORFUL blooms in shady areas, no shrub enjoys the rich popularity of the camellia. The camellia has earned its reputation by its many flower forms and colors—and because one or another of the varieties are in bloom from fall to spring. A well-planned shade garden may enjoy the splendor of camellia blooms most of the year with these handsome plants. The camellia needs well-drained, moist, acid soil for peak performance and prefers filtered to full shade.

The foliage of the Oregon Grape (mahonia aquifolium) lends different effects in name, this medium growing shrub has gold-flecked toothed leaves growing thickly on its branches. When placed adjacent to darker plants requiring similar growing conditions (such as camellia or daphne), the Gold Dust Plant provides eye-catching highlights. Two plants, a male and a female, are necessary to produce bright red berries in winter, requires little attention after planting.

Robertson Organ Recital

The opening recital of the season for the Pasadena Chapter of the American Guild of Organists will present Dr. Irene Robertson, professor of organ at the University of Southern California, in a recital, Monday, Oct. 14, at 8:15 p.m. in the sanctuary of the San Marino Community Church. The program is open to the public.

Dr. Robertson is a concert organist in this area and has recently returned from a three-month European vacation during which she heard and played a number of important organs in Switzerland, Germany, Austria, Holland, Denmark and France.

Among the instruments of historical significance she played were the famous Compenius organ in Denmark dating from 1616, a 14th century instrument in a church at Valerio, Switzerland, and the organ in the St. Jacob's Church in Hamburg.

For her program Oct. 14, Dr. Robertson will play three works by 18th century German composers, and two groups of organ works by contemporary European composers.

Included, also, is a first performance of "Three Short Preludes for Organ" by Halsey Stevens, head of the composition department at USC.
